Hi Alex,

We have DOJ's first draft of the brief in the ME WQS case. I normally would not bother you with a DOJ first before the team has had a chance to refine it. But Matt L and David F have asked to see it right away, as you'll see below. So I wanted to give you a chance to look at it as well in case it comes up at your level.

Thanks, Tim

Hi Matt and David,

Attached is David Carson's first draft of the brief in Maine v. Pruitt. Thank you for being willing to look at it even before the team has had a chance to polish it up for you. Dave C has given us a very substantial draft, but there are edits the team is working on that we plan to be able to share with you by COB Monday 6/11 if at all possible.

Best, Tim

Thanks. Matt and I would like to see the draft from DOJ—could you please pass that along? We'd also like to see the draft with the team's comments tracked before we pass back to DOJ. I know this is not the typical process, but the importance of this litigation is driving the approach here. Let me know if you'd like to discuss.

Hi David. We have the draft and hope to incorporate a round of team level comments in it before you and Matt have review it. Is getting it to you next Wednesday OK? Thanks. Tim

What's the status of the Maine brief? I've heard from DOI that they've received a draft. Have we? Matt would like to review ASAP.

Hi David,

Attached is the final version of the Maine status report. Dave Carson filed it this afternoon after receiving confirmation that DOI was fine with EPA filing today. Also attached is the DOI clarification letter, filed along with the report.

David,

Attached for your review is a two-page draft status report prepared by Dave Carson. The report would attach the DOI letter.
